Target group

You are a project worker or (prospective) project manager. You already have some experience with projects and would like to prepare yourself for working with the PRINCE2 methodology. You work or have the ambition to work in an international environment in which English is the language of communication.

Prior education

You have at least a higher education level of practical and intellectual ability and should preferably have some project experience.

Involvement in projects currently taking place within your own organization is also useful. You have good knowledge of the English language.

Method of study

During the course the focus is placed on working on projects according to the PRINCE2 methodology. The course familiarizes you with this methodology through theory, exercises and group discussions. An entire project is simulated and tackled. An experienced project manager with broad practical experience with the PRINCE2 methodology provides supervision and prepares you for the PRINCE2 Foundation examination, which is held in English.

You take this examination after the last day of the course. You can schedule your online examination at PeopleCert with a voucher code you will receive from ICM.

ICM is renowned for having a very high pass rate for the PRINCE2 Foundation examination.

Study material

The most recent study material (in English) is used. This complies fully with the guidelines and examination requirements of PRINCE2.
